CAREER OBJECTIVE

As a BBA Marketing undergraduate currently in my second year at Jashore University of Science and Technology, I am focused on developing my career as a marketing professional, market researcher and data analyst. I aim to master advanced marketing strategies, market research techniques and data analytics to drive strategic business growth and innovation. Alongside my studies, I work as a poster designer, creating visually engaging content for academic and promotional purposes. Through continuous learning and practical experience, I aspire to contribute impactful insights and lead data-driven marketing initiatives at a professional level.
